

Exhibit Engineering has the right combination of talent to realize a client's dream and all the complexities of making it happen. Their consultative style is flexible and they offer added insights to increase the success of an exhibition. They care about the details!

Terry Murphy, Exhibit Engineering's owner, has the heart and courage to tackle any tough challenge. As a company they commit their full energy to fabricate an exhibit with excellence. Their frequent communication and positive feedback allows for a strong partnership and an easy ability to adapt to change. TIGERS-Tracking a Legend's traveling exhibition greatly benefited from Exhibit Engineering's dynamic team approach and their spirit of innovation!
